MEN :

HEART OF A WARRIOR

Thursdays, 6:30 PM

Begins February 7

Men have a significant role in God's larger story. They're also the target of a special warfare aimed continually and ruthlessly at the center of their being: their masculine hearts. Men are wounded, frustrated, angry and being crushed under the weight of criticism and expectations.

What if we are setting men up for failure rather than helping them be free? Author Michael Thompson invites men to a place of training and orientation that will ensure both a settled heart and a fierce courage.
