

Who Is Jesus?

Your middle schoolers are exploring who Jesus is, what He did for them at Easter, and what it means for their lives today in a new series called Who Is Jesus? Each of us approaches faith with a different worldview, and that can sometimes make understanding the message of Jesus difficult. This series explores that message from several different perspectives, introducing students to what Jesus has done for us in a number of ways to reach a number of worldviews.

MEMORY VERSE

“I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”
John 16:33, NLT

Week One

Matthew 27:50–51a, John 15:15

Because of Jesus, you can be connected with God.

Week Two

Luke 4:14–20, 21b,
1 Corinthians 12:27a

Because of Jesus, you have the power to make wrong things right.

Week Three

John 10:10

Because of Jesus, we can have life to the full.

Week Four

Isaiah 53:6, John 19:28–30

Because of Jesus, your mistakes don't hold you back.

Week Five

John 16:33b

Because of Jesus, you are never alone.

Middle School

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

---

Morning Time

As your middle schooler starts their day, encourage them by telling them about a time you've seen them being kind recently.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask your middle schooler: "What are some ways you like to connect with God?" (For example, journaling, nature, running, music, etc.) Share ways you like to connect with God, too.

Drive Time

While on the go this week, ask your middle schooler: "What's your friend, [insert their friend's name], been up to lately?"

Bed Time

Pray: "Jesus, may we always be aware of Your presence and remember we can talk with You about anything at any time."
