ICEBREAKER (10 MINUTES)

How do you relate to Pastor David's confession that he has home projects left incomplete? What projects have you left incomplete? If you could magically complete one home project, which would it be?

INTRODUCTION (5-10 MINUTES)

Last week we invited you to remind yourself that God is with you. Did you try one of the following and how did that go?

- Place a Sticky note or similar to your bathroom mirror with the verse you're memorizing this week, so you'll practice it morning and evening.
- Keep a journal on your phone this week of moments when you felt all alone. Use those notations as opportunities to pray about the circumstances in those moments and for God to strengthen you by his presence when/if those circumstances arise again.
- Place something in your pocket that whenever you feel or touch it, you'll be reminded that God is with you.

What statement or idea most stood out to you from Pastor David's message?

your life, and trust in His plan for your future. Gratitude and contentment can help you maintain a positive outlook and strengthen your trust in God's faithfulness.

PRAYER (10 MINUTES)

Our Savior and Lord Jesus, without you we are lost and completely without hope and light. Your finished work on the cross accomplished exactly what we needed for our sin problem, as well as what we need every day for godliness. Strengthen our trust in your promise to finish everything you begin in us and in our lives. May our view of life and the world be shaped by knowing everything will be finished. Thank you, Lord Jesus. Amen.
