WE ARE BETTER TOGETHER

ICEBREAKER

What is one place, activity, or habit that helps you feel a sense of peace? Why do you think it has that effect on you?

INTRODUCTION

What stands out to you from Pastor Levi's message?

The search for peace is universal, yet true peace often seems elusive. Isaiah 9:6 foretells Jesus as the "Prince of Peace," offering a peace unlike anything the world provides. In this study, we'll explore how Jesus brings peace with God, peace within ourselves, and peace with others, inviting us to receive this peace as a gift from God.

INTO THE WORD

Read Romans 5:1 and Isaiah 9:6. These passages describe the peace Jesus brings. How does understanding "peace with God" change how you view your relationship with Him? What difference can this understanding bring in daily, practical terms?

Read John 14:27 and Psalm 4:8. Jesus promises a peace that is not like the world's. What distinguishes His peace from the "peace" the world offers? How have you experienced this peace in your life recently?

Read Matthew 5:9 and Matthew 11:28-30. Jesus calls His followers to be peacemakers and to find rest in Him. How can you embody this kind of peace in your relationships and daily activities?

APPLICATION

Receive the Gift of Peace: Reflect on how peace is described as a gift from God. Is there an area of your life where you've been striving for peace but have not found it? What step can you take today to receive God's provision for peace through Jesus? How might your group help you this week to find peace?

Be a Peacemaker: Identify one relationship where you can actively pursue peace this week. What action can you take to bring reconciliation or calm to that situation?

Practice Restful Activity: Jesus offers rest that isn't about stopping activity but finding peace in the midst of it. How can you integrate daily spiritual practices that bring peace into your routines this week?

As Levi closed his message, he mentioned the 52 Bible verses to memorize for peace in 2025 (the link is in the Notes). How might you use those verses to help you or someone close to you find daily peace?

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank You for sending Your Son, Jesus, as the Savior, Messiah, and Lord. Thank You for our redemption through Jesus. May we live each day in the peace He has brought to us. May we never doubt His love for us and His presence with us. Help us to live lives of peace so that others may taste the goodness of God that is available to them through Jesus. In the name of our Prince of Peace, we pray, Amen.
