Footsteps

- Connect us to the world around us
- Just as each step leaves its mark upon the earth, so to do we leave an imprint upon the lives of those we encounter

What happened to Greeks when they died?

- The Greeks believed that the dead went to the Underworld. This was an underground kingdom ruled by the god Hades.
- To reach the Underworld, dead souls had to cross the River Styx. A grumpy ferryman called Charon would take them across, but only if they paid him. So Greeks would place a coin in the mouth of a dead person at funerals, to make sure they could pay the fare.
- After crossing the River Styx, three judges decided where the dead person should spend eternity. If they'd been really good, they were sent to live happily forever in the Elysian Fields.
- If they had been ok, they were sent to the Asphodel Meadows.
- But if they had been really bad, they ended up in Tartarus. This was a really horrible pit where their soul was tortured for all eternity.

The entrance to the Underworld was guarded by a three headed dog called Cerberus.

- Influenced Darwin and Linnaeus

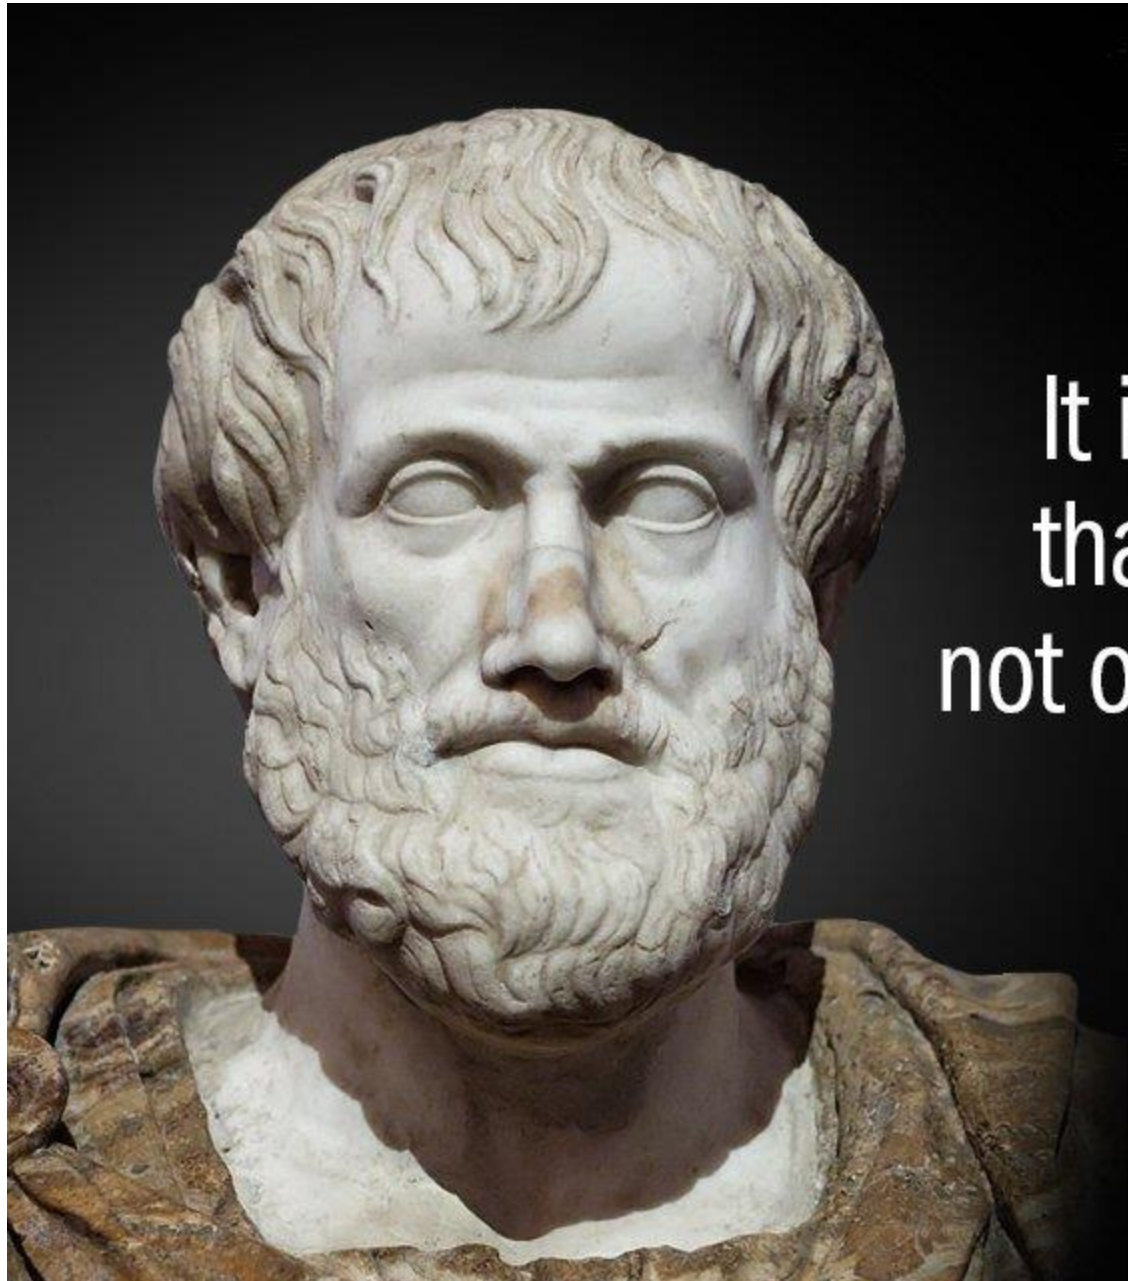

- "The most important relationship we can all have is the one you have with yourself, the most important journey you can take is one of self-discovery. To know yourself, you must spend time with yourself, you must not be afraid to be alone. Knowing yourself is the beginning of all wisdom." ~ Aristotle

Knowing yourself is the beginning of all wisdom

It is our choice of good or evil
that determines our character,
not our opinion about good or evil.
